To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to inform you of the exceptional job that Cara does cleaning my house, she is a very trustworthy individual, and her attention to detail is second to none. She goes above and beyond what is expected of her. Cara has been cleaning my house for over a year now and I am happy to say I would recommend her and Above and Beyond Janitorial Services to anyone currently not happy with there cleaning services. Above and Beyond Janitorial Services should consider themselves very fortunate to have found a person with the integrity and character that Cara demonstrates. This companies standards are higher than any other company I have dealt with in the past.

Sincerely,
